

- 28 What happens when waves pass through a gap equal to their wavelength?
- A There is diffraction and the wavelength decreases.
 - B There is diffraction and the wavelength stays the same.
 - C There is no diffraction and the wavelength decreases.
 - D There is no diffraction and the wavelength stays the same.