

- 6 A light-meter measures the intensity I of the light incident on it. Theory suggests that I varies inversely as the square of the distance d .

Which graph of the results supports this theory?

