

28 In a two-source interference experiment, light of a single frequency is incident on a double slit.

The light waves emerging from the slits are coherent.

What is meant by coherent?

- A The waves are in phase.
- B The waves have a constant phase difference.
- C The waves have the same amplitude.
- D The waves interfere constructively wherever they overlap.