

- 17 The first column in the table gives four examples of work being done. The second column gives more detail of the action.

Which row is not correct?

	example	detail
A	a girl dives from a diving board into a swimming pool	work is done by the girl against gravity as she falls
B	a man pushes a car along a level road	work is done by the man against friction
C	an electron is accelerated towards a positively-charged plate	work is done on the electron by the electric field of the plate
D	a piston is pushed outwards as a gas expands	work is done on the atmosphere by the gas

Space for working