

1 What is a scalar quantity?

- A a quantity that can be represented as two perpendicular components
- B a quantity that does not require a unit
- C a quantity without a direction
- D a quantity without a magnitude

2 The value of $\sin^{-1}(\frac{1}{2})$ is approximately 30°