

15 Which statement about energy is not correct?

- A Energy is never lost but it may be transferred between different forms.
- B In an inelastic collision, the total energy is constant.
- C The efficiency of a system is the ratio of the useful energy output to the total energy input.
- D When a machine does work, friction reduces the total energy.