

6 Variables x and y are related by the equation $y = p - qx$ where p and q are constants.

Values of x and y are measured experimentally. The results contain a systematic error.

Which graph best represents these results?

Space for working