

- 25 A stationary wave is formed by two progressive waves travelling in opposite directions along the same line of travel.

Which statement about the two progressive waves is not correct?

- A They must have a constant phase difference.
- B They must have the same frequency.
- C They must have the same wavelength.
- D They must travel at the same speed.