

1 Which statement about physical quantities is correct?

- A A physical quantity does not always have a magnitude or a unit.
- B A physical quantity must always have a magnitude but does not always have a unit.
- C A physical quantity must always have a unit but does not always have a magnitude.
- D A physical quantity must always have a magnitude and a unit.