

- 6 A football is dropped from the top of a three-storey building. It falls through air until it reaches the ground.

What remains constant throughout the fall?

- A acceleration of the football
- B air resistance on the football
- C velocity of the football
- D weight of the football

Space for working