

|   |                                                                                                                                                                                       |    |     |
|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|-----|
| 7 | (a) the majority/most went straight throughor were deviated by small angles                                                                                                       | B1 |     |
|   | a very small proportion/a few were deviated by large angles                                                                                                                           | B1 |     |
|   | small angles described as $< 10^\circ$ and large angles described as $>90^\circ$                                                                                               | B1 | [3] |
|   | (b) most of the atom is empty space/nucleus very small compared with atommass and charge concentrated in (very small) nucleuscorrect links made with statements in (a) | B1 |     |
|   |                                                                                                                                                                                       | B1 |     |
|   |                                                                                                                                                                                       | B1 | [3] |