

|      |                                                           |           |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
|      |                                                           |           |
| 3(a) | (little/no volume change so) little/no external work done | B1 |
|      | thermal energy supplied to provide latent heat            | M1 |
|      | internal energy increases                                 | A1 |
| 3(b) | (rapid) increase in volume                                | B1 |
|      | gas does work against the atmosphere                      | M1 |
|      | internal energy decreases                                 | A1 |