

4 Graphs can be used to represent the motion of an object.

Which relationship between a quantity of motion and a property of a graph is correct?

A Acceleration is the area under a velocity–time graph.

B Acceleration is the gradient of a velocity–time graph.

C Displacement is the gradient of a velocity–time graph.

D Velocity is the area under a displacement–time graph.